

POETRY WORKSHOP with JUDITH ROCHE
Sunday, March 28, 1-4pm
DOE BAY RESORT, OTTER LODGE

“Through a series of targeted exercises and reading an array of poets, both contemporary and older, we’ll work on generating new poems. Along the way we’ll discuss the elements of poetry (phanopoeia, melopoeia and logopoeia) and issues of craft. Our goal will be to have a number of poem starts, ideas and inspirations to work on by the end of class. All experience levels welcome. If you are new to poetry, or if you are experienced in your poetic process, this will be a good class to get you going and give you some fresh ideas. The second half of the 3-hour workshop will be devoted to critiquing poems you bring in.”

TUITION: $55

To register, call Doe Bay Resort (360) 376-2291

Judith Roche is the author of three collections of poetry, the most recent of which, Wisdom of the Body, won an American Book Award, She has edited a number of poetry anthologies and has worked in collaboration with visual artists on several public art projects which are installed in the Northwest area, including an installation about salmon at the Chittenden Locks. She is Literary Arts Director Emeritus for One Reel, and teaches poetry workshops throughout the country. She was Distinguished Northwest Writer in Residence at Seattle University in 2007 and is a Fellow in the Black Earth Institute.

MONDAY, MARCH 30, JUDITH ROCHE IS THE FEATURED GUEST FOR THE ARTSMITH SALON AT DOE BAY CAFÉ, 7-9 PM. WORKSHOP PARTICIPANTS ARE ENCOURAGED TO SHARE THEIR WRITING AT THE SALON OPEN MIC. PARTICIPANTS STAYING AT DOE BAY RESORT RECEIVE 25% OFF LOW-SEASON RATES.

www.DoeBay.com